Happy New Year

to all Service users, Staff and Volunteers

103 The Broadway Official Opening

On the 11th of December the new drug and alcohol treatment centre was officially opened by Councillor Hitesh Tailor Cabinet Member for Health and Adults' Services. The new centre marks the end of a long search by RISE for a permanent base with modern facilities and adequate space.

BoB Awards

Congratulation to Ealing volunteers who won awards at the annual BoB ceremony at Kensington Town Hall on Friday 5th December:

- |         |                                   |
|---------|-----------------------------------|
| Jatinda | Winner of Facilitator of the year |
| Marie   | Winner of Volunteer of the year   |
| Simon   | Team Leader of the year           |
| John    | Commitment award                  |

Thanks to the dedication of these four and countless other volunteers the social club continues to thrive. Hope to see you there soon.

Jack & the Beanstalk

Christmas must mean Panto season, oh no it doesn't, oh yes it does, which is why Sean Kelly's party (yes we did get a mention from Ms Trott) went to Questors to see Jack & the Beanstalk. Full of the compulsory cringe-worthy jokes, goodies, baddies, frocks and booing and hissing it was pure panto.

Set in the typical enchanted village of Merrydale with its own King, princess, giant and cow would good triumph over evil and would Jack save the day? The second act brought the giant on stage who as expected was a bit big and a bit bad. Nevertheless Jack saw him off, won the hand of the princess and as expected everyone lived happily ever after.

I enjoyed it as did many others and I am now officially in Christmas mode. Many thanks to Sean for organising the visit.
